Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 9, 1903.

No Serious Drawback. Bridget was engaged to be married to a young plumber, Terence Dolan by name, and when, two weeks before the day set for the wedding, she fell down the cellar stairs she was in the depths

"I've broke out one o' my front teeth," she walled to her mistress, "and my teeth has been my best beauty, ma'am! Manny's the time Terence has had me show 'em to his friends and remarked how fine they were! Oh, what'll I do? What'll I do?"

"Tell Terence all about it when he comes tonight, and I'm sure he'll say he's only glad you were not more se-verely injured," said her mistress, but Bridget shook her head and refused to be comforted.

Twould be better for me if I'd broke some of my bones," she said gloomily, "and maybe all of 'em." That evening after Terence had come and gone Bridget appeared before her mistress, the gloom gone and her face

"I towld him all about it," she said gayly, "and he says to me, 'What's a tooth more or less when it comes to cookin'? he says carelesslike and passed on to Cassidy's wake as if 'twas no

"Talk about fish and things of the sea!" said he who claimed to be a sea-faring man. ""Twas in the year—well, it was a good while ago and we were floating somewhere around-well, one of the occurs. One day we were heading sou' by sou'west, intitude-I forget exactly which-when a ripple in the water suggested the presence of r shark. You can always tell a shark by its ripple. He's got one of his own. We never landed a good specimen, and when he showed his head I could well tell he was a ten footer. I always was quick and precise. A knife in me mouth, a jump, and I landed headfore most between the shark's jaws. Quick-as a flash I turned around. With me knife I cut holes through his sides for my legs and arms to pass through and swam back to the ship. Weil, he was a fine mersel, that fish was, and we lived on him for weeks. Is it true? Well'-and he displayed a splinter from the handle of the kulfe. - Harper's

The Racing Camel.

The ordinary camel, which will never hurry under any circumstances, has been transformed in southern Algeria into an animal so different in size, tem per and appearance that it may almost e looked upon as a different race. This is the racing camel, prized for its speed. The result of many generations of careful breeding, which has been en-couraged by valuable prizes, it can be depended upon for nine or ten miles an hour, which it can keep up for sixteen or seventeen hours, almost without stop. Its value is five or ten times that of the beast of burden. The came races are popular sport and are made exciting by the evident interest of the creatures themselves in winning.

A Lack of Firmness.

A very matter of fact old gentleman the other day called to see a neighbor, an old Irishwoman, who had been alling for some time, when the following conversation took place at the door: "And how do you find yourself today.

"Sure, your honor, I'm mighty bad. This shocking weather 'll be the end of me. I'll be a dead woman before

"Hoots, toots, woman! Ye've been saying that for the last twenty years! I'll tell ye what it is-ye want firmness o'mind. Fin' a day for yer deeing and stick tae it!"-London Telegraph.

Good Teeth.

Don't fail to ponder occasionally on these facts: That without good teeth there cannot be thorough mastication. Without thorough mastication there cannot be perfect digestion.

Without perfect digestion there cannot be preper assimilation. Without proper assimilation there cannot be nutrition. Without nutrition there cannot be Without health what is life worth? Hence the paramount importance of good teeth.

Thus Spoke the Cynle.

"Curious thing about a man with a watch is that if you see him take it out and look at it and you ask him two seconds later what time it is he never remembers. He has to look at it

"Yes; I've noticed that he'll always do it-if his watch is a fine one." Chicago Tribune.

Fully Competent.

"What we require," said the manag-; editor, "is the services of a man pable of taking full charge of our Juery Box.' Are you capable of an-wering all kinds of questions?"

"Well, I rather think I ought to be," replied the applicant. "I'm the father of eleven children."

Stuffed With Food, Starved For Air. You can live forty days without food, but you cannot live four minutes without air. These things being true, is it wise to stuff ourselves with food and starve ourselves for want of air?-

First Chappie-I wonder now, Chollie, how the donkey ever came to be used as the-er-emblem of stupidity? Second Chapple (with a yawn)-Don't know, I'm sure, deah boy; must have been before our day.
